OVERALL TENDENCIES

- Attentive to what is practical and workable, to what is immediately important, to creating results, and to getting things done.
- Can become too 'now' oriented and results oriented leading to crisis problem solving, to reactive thinking, and to a skeptical, impatient attitude when others do not, or cannot, see the value of your solutions.
- Are likely to be an individualist, covertly or overtly getting around existing ideas and ways of doing things.
- Will tend to put off or discount the need for planning and overlook consequences of decisions unless they have immediate impact.
- Are likely to be more comfortable in social/external situations and relationships where it is easier for to rely on your natural common sense ability.
- Can become overly pragmatic and competitive, developing critical, impatient, advice giving, skeptical, attitudes toward others, especially when they do not get things done in a practical, effective manner.
- Can readily identify crucial issues, generate practical alternatives, and respond with practical advice.
- Tend to listen selectively, overlooking both the personal concerns of others and the effect your responses can have on them.
- Have a strong sense of commitment to personal goals and expectations such that success and fulfillment are rooted in achievement of your personal goals.
- Tend to live what you think you ought to be becoming susceptible to frustration and anxiety, to feelings of guilt and inadequacy when you do not measure up.
- Tend to blow up your imperfections and mistakes and become extremely sensitive to what others think or say about you.
- Tend to feel frustrated, anxious and dissatisfied because you believe that your current situation does not allow you to perform to potential or that you are not achieving your best.
- Commitment to personal goals and persistence can be an anchor in difficult times but can also lead to stubborn insistence that your way is right regardless of circumstances.
